

Navy Secretary Will Address Graduates

The Honorable John Lawrence Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy of the United States, will deliver the principal address at the 1949 Commencement of Loyola College on June 5. Announcements concerning the bestowal of honorary degrees are forthcoming.

Sullivan, who has been with the Department of National Defense since 1947, enjoys a long record of government service.

Born In New Hampshire

The Secretary was born in the state of New Hampshire on June 16, 1899. He attended Dartmouth College and received his A. B. degree from that college in 1921. Sullivan then attended Harvard Law School and obtained an LL. B. from that institution in 1924.

He was admitted to the New Hampshire Bar in 1923 and began his practice in Manchester in 1924. From 1929-33, he was County Solicitor of Hillsborough County, N. H. Sullivan became the sole owner of

Dramatic Society Chooses New Scenery Method For April Play

All set and scenery changes for the Mask and Rapier Society's April production, Thy Kingdom Come, will be projections, according to the latest word received from the Rev. Leo G. Monaghan, S. J., Society Moderator.

"Projections are an unusual and colorful method of stage setting," explains author George Herman who is designing the sets. "With this method of lighting and setting there are available bold splashes of color to match the mood of the scene and such advancements as moving clouds on a sky which constantly changes hue."

Additional Performances Planned

In addition to the performances scheduled for St. Mary's auditorium in Govanstown on Sunday and Monday of Holy Week, the Moderator has announced that the show will be taken to St. Mary's, Annapolis, for a show on Tuesday evening.

After the regular performances of the show, a special showing will be given before television cameras on Good Friday night at either St. Ignatius' Hall or the television studio.

Custer Plays Caiphas

Robert Custer, President of the Dramatic Society, will play the role of Caiphas; Lawrence Davis and Emerson Clarke will take parts as Pilate and Peter, respectively.

Program arrangements are progressing under the direction of Howard France.

Full rehearsals for the play have been held thus far on Sundays while special scenes have been rehearsed in the afternoons. The original running time of the play has been cut considerably and a few revisions have been made in the script.

Besides projections "levels" will be incorporated into the scenery organization.

Rector To Receive Order Of Isabel On March 31

The Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S. J., President of Loyola College, will officially be invested in the Order of Isabel, the Catholic, with the rank of Commander on Thursday, March 31, at 8:30 p.m. The ceremony will take place at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel in Baltimore.

The reading of the decree will take place at the Spanish Embassy in Washington on March 27. Announcement of the distinguished citation was made by Jose F. de Lequerica, Spanish Ambassador to the United States.

Father Talbot was the chairman of the Spanish Relief Fund which raised over $125,000 for aid which was distributed in Spain through Cardinal Goma, Archbishop of Toledo.

The speakers for the occasion in their order of speaking are as follows: William J. Casey, Chairman of the Sponsoring Committee of Baltimore; Honorable Thomas D'Alesandro, Mayor of Baltimore; Rev. Doctor Joseph J. Thorning, Associate Editor of The Americas and World Affairs; Don German Baraibar, Charge d'Affaires of Spain and His Excellency, Jose de Lequerica, Spanish Ambassador.

Following the speakers, Father Talbot will be awarded the Order of Isabel. The ceremonies will close with a benediction, which will be given by the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, D. D. Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore.

May '49 Plans Senior Week

Tentative plans for Senior Week were recently announced for the May 1949 Class by Raymond E. Parr, President. Parr stated that present plans include a Senior Ball which will be held on June 3. It is tentatively set for the Maryland Yacht Club.

On Tuesday, May 31, the Seniors will attend a banquet at the Hillendale Country Club. The committee is now working out the details of the event which they promised would include an inviting menu.

The class is also considering holding a shore party at the shore home of someone in the class.

Debaters To Go To TKA Tourney

The TKA induction banquet, originally scheduled for tomorrow evening, was postponed until Thursday evening, April 21. The forensic fraternity will hold the affair at the Stafford Hotel.

Mr. James Perrott, Moderator of the Bellarmine Debating Society, recently stated the requirements for those men who will travel to Indiana to participate in the TKA Tournament. The tournament is being conducted on March 30, 31 and April 1.

All those members of the Bellarmine Debating Society or the Loyola chapter of TKA who are seniors and who have debated for more than one year are eligible for the trip.

It is hoped that transportation by car to Indiana can be arranged so that more members will be able to attend the event. Mr. Perrott pointed out that any debaters who might take the trip would be expected to bear part of the financial burden, exclusive of registration fees and available transportation.

The tournament is sponsored by TKA, national honor forensic fraternity, which has a new chapter on the Loyola campus.

Dean Announces Three Annual Contests

• Hearst Oratorical

Four Loyola students are expected to be chosen to participate in the annual Hearst National Oratorical Contest. This announcement was made by Mr. James Perrott, Moderator of the Bellarmine Debating Society.

Eliminations will be conducted at the College to determine Loyola's entries in the Maryland college semi-finals. Maryland state-wide college finals will be conducted on April 22.

The winner of the state-wide college finals will receive a $500 Savings Bond and a trip to the Eastern Zone finals in New York City. Second place will carry with it a $100 bond. The third place winner will be awarded a $50 bond. The remaining contestants in the state finals will each receive a $25 bond.

The winning contestant in the Eastern Zone finals will travel to California for the national finals.

• History Essay

Six students have submitted their names to the History Department as contestants in the History essay contest which is currently being conducted by the department. The winner of the contest will be awarded the Whiteford Gold Medal, which was founded by Miss Celinda Whiteford.

The contest topic is Religious Freedom in Maryland, which was chosen to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the passing of the Act of Religious Toleration in Maryland. The contest is Loyola's contribution to a state-wide celebration of the event.

The completed essays must be submitted to the History Department by April 29. All students who have taken one course in History are eligible for the contest.

The essays must be at least 3,000 words in length. In addition, they must be typewritten, double-spaced. A one-inch margin should be left around the typewritten page.

• Lee Oratorical

The annual Lee Oratorical Contest will be held in the College Library on Friday, May 6, at 3:30 p.m. A gold medal will be awarded to the outstanding speaker of the afternoon.

A board of three judges will award the medal on the basis of composition and delivery. Any member of the Loyola student body may participate in the forensic contest. All those students who intend to take part in the event must submit their names to the Dean's Office before April 15.

The speeches must not be over six minutes in length, but they may be written on any subject chosen by the contestant. The Lee Oratorical Contest was not held last year.

The medal was founded by Mrs. Josephine Lee.

Judges for the contest will probably be chosen from the Loyola College Faculty as has been the custom in the past.

Dates Set For Senior Retreat And Graduate Record Exams

Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S. J.

The Office of the Dean has given notification to all Seniors concerning the dates of their retreat and Graduate Record Examinations. The Senior Retreat will begin on Saturday, April 30 and will close on Monday, May 2. The Senior Retreat will be held at Evergreen in the College Gym. All Catholic members of the graduating class will attend the retreat.

Graduate Record Examinations will be conducted at the College on Thursday and Friday, April 28 and 29. Most of the Seniors will take their examinations in the College Library but it may be necessary to use some classrooms this year because of the unusually large graduating class.

I.R.C. Will Visit Mount St. Agnes

The International Relations Club of Loyola College, has announced through its Moderator, Dr. Harry W. Kirwin, that a Banquet is planned in May and that a guest speaker will be selected in the near future.

A visit to the I.R.C. of Mount Saint Agnes College has been planned for April in reciprocation of the visit of their Club to Evergreen last week.

Also on the agenda is the trip to Rutgers, where the Club will take the position of Ecuador in a model United Nations assembly.

ALUMNI DOINGS

By Edward A. Doehler, '30

Executive Committee Meeting

This evening, March 25, the Executive Committee will meet at Evergreen under the chairmanship of President Louis C. Roche. Chief items on the agenda will be plans for the Banquet and coming Communion Mass and Breakfast.

Report On "Thursday Nites"

President Louis C. Roche announces that the "Thursday Nites" at Evergreen have been discontinued for the spring and summer season. Through January, February and March the Recreation Room and the Gym Floor have been the scene of Alumni gatherings every Thursday evening. Under the able chairmanship of Robert W. McCaffrey '41, this new activity of the Association has proven to be a success. The attendance has been good and has brought back to Evergreen many Alumni who have not been on the campus for many years. With the evening of March 24, the practice will be discontinued until the Fall when the Thursday Nites will be resumed. In the intervening months there is a possibility that some outdoor campus activity may be inaugurated. Remember, the campus facilities are available for the use of members of the Association. You are always welcome at Evergreen. Why not come out?

Banquet Reminder

Lest we forget, the Annual Alumni Banquet will be held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Thursday, April 21, 1949. Members have received by mail, letters notifying them of the banquet and asking for the return of a banquet reservation form. Have you filled out yours? Why not do it now? The Committee has secured a famous speaker and promised us an excellent meal. It is up to us—to you—to get the crowd. Have you talked to any of your classmates? How about doing it tonight? Reserve a table and have a real reunion. Remember the date, April 21,—at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Report On Oyster Roast

Those who attended the Oyster Roast on March 6 report that an enjoyable afternoon was had by all. Once the holding of these affairs becomes a regular annual tradition, we hope to find increased attendance. It is the ambition of the Committee to make the Alumni Oyster Roast one of the best known and best attended in the city.

Bridge Club Meets NDM; Plans Other College Matches

The Loyola Bridge Club met Notre Dame College in a four-table match on Wednesday evening, March 23. Eight members from Loyola, under the direction of President James Bowen, met a like number from NDM under the tutelage of Toni Taylor.

Matches with Hopkins, Goucher and Mt. St. Agnes have been planned for the near future. Those with Hopkins and Goucher will be held soon after the return from the mid-term vacations.

The Book Of The Greyhound By Ash, M.R.A.C., (Dip. Hons.)

by Donald Swartz

On the editor's desk in THE GREYHOUND office there is a book entitled, redundantly enough, The Book of the Greyhound, by Edward C. Ash, M.R.A.C. (Dip. Hons.).

This almost stumps most readers at the title page, because after trying to figure out how to pronounce M.R.A.C. (Dip. Hons.) and deciding that it must be some sort of a cheer designed to urge Greyhounds on to bigger and better things, they are generally too bushed (a rather unfortunate word choice, considering the subject) to read further. Here they make a monumental mistake. The thing is fraught with useful information.

The Arab And The Greyhound

For instance, did you know that the Arab Greyhound was the outcome of long and close association with man and intensive breeding? While this may leave the average Arab wide open for some rather nasty comments, not to say the object of considerable untoward speculation, it is interesting, in its own small way.

For instance, it develops that the Malton Coursing Club, one of the oldest meetings in the kingdom, continued without interruption except from frost until 1781. Just why frost should enter into the thing is not too fully explained. As a matter of fact, it isn't explained at all, so that we can only conjecture that it did something to the bearings or the Greyhounds couldn't get up sufficient oil pressure to be much good to anybody. We all know that a Greyhound with low oil pressure is no Greyhound at all.

Becomes Obscure

"Then came the October 1857 meeting, and we do not wonder any longer that Bedlamite blood was was considered to be the very best." So says Edward Ash, M.R.A.C., etc. Come now, my dear M.R.A.C., isn't this taking a bit too much for granted? I'm sure some of us wonder. What made Bedlamite blood the stuff to give to the troops? Was it 100 octane or 90 proof? Or was it just the thing for signing peace treaties with or for writing messages from one Tong member to another? Heads will roll for this obscurity. (Dip. Hons.)

Toward the back of the book we find a statement that we find very difficult to accept. "Each Greyhound must wear a coat." The only thing that we can figure is that this was the way they got around the problem of frost.

At this point the book turned to a discussion of breeding and because of the preponderance of Arabs mentioned by their first names we returned the book to the editor's desk and went away a better and more useful man.

Budenz Story Shifts From Communism To Christianity

by David B. Maguire

The annual Loyola College Alumni Association Banquet, to be held this year at the Lord Baltimore Hotel on April 21, will have as its distinguished guest and main speaker, Louis, Francis Budenz, former Editor-in-Chief of the Communist Party's Daily Worker.

Budenz, born a Catholic, is the author of the recent book, This Is My Story, which describes his re-conversion from the Philosophy of the Communists to Christianity. The book is dedicated to "Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our Beloved land".

Professor And Journalist

Who's Who in America lists Budenz as a Professor of Economics and a Journalist. He was born in Indiana, on July 12, 1891, and attended St. Mary's and St. Xavier's Colleges. He received his LL.B. from Indianapolis Law School in 1912.

Budenz was married in 1933 and has been associated with the official organs of several Labor Unions as well as being the Labor Editor and Editor-in-Chief of The Daily Worker.

Led Strikes

The publication also cites the strikes that he led in Kenosha, Wis. in 1928, and in Nazareth, Pa. in 1929. Budenz has been tried twenty-one times in labor disputes but has never been convicted.

After his re-conversion to Catholicism, he taught Economics at the University of Notre Dame in 1945 and 1946 and has taught at Fordham University since 1946.

Banquet Tickets

Tickets for the banquet, priced at five dollars, will be on sale this week.

Invitations for the affair have been sent to the Honorable Thomas D'Alesandro, Mayor of Baltimore, as well as to Governor William Preston Lane and the Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, Archbishop of Baltimore, by Jules O. Knight '36, the Chairman of the Banquet Committee. The Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S. J., will also be among the guests of honor.

Greyhound Staff Plans Informal Stag Party

A short business meeting of the members of the staff of THE GREYHOUND will be held in the recreation room of the Gymnasium on Sunday, March 27 at 7:00 p.m.

Following the meeting, will be an informal stag party and "mixer" at which the Moderator, Rev. John J. Scanlan, S. J., will be present.

Because of the large staff and the restricted space of the office, it has been impossible for the staff to meet as a group.

This meeting will be the last before the annual Staff banquet to be held in May.

Night School Holds Day Of Recollection

The Rev. John E. Wise, S. J., Dean of the Evening School, has announced a Day of Recollection will be held on Passion Sunday, April 3.

The affair will be conducted by Father Edward A. Ryan, S. J., starting at 11:00 a.m. and ending with Benediction at 4:00 p.m.

All Evening School faculty members and students and their friends are invited. Father Wise has also announced that the Library will be opened for spiritual reading from 12:00 to 1:00.

Arrangements for the day are under the supervision of a joint Student-Faculty Committee. The faculty members are Thomas J. Grogan, Francis P. Fairbank and Francis J. Mueller. Students are Mrs. Margaret M. Dudley, James P. S. Devereux, Francis Valle and Miss Genevieve T. Wenski.

Seasons Are Yearbook Theme

The theme of the 1949 yearbook, the Evergreen Annual, will be "The Calendar as It Progresses through the Academic Year," it was announced by Donald E. Fay, Editor-in-Chief of the publication.

Containing around 140 pages, the annual will be divided according to the seasons of the year.

Dedicated To Fr. Talbot

This year's Evergreen Annual, which will be dedicated to the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S. J., President of Loyola College, will have an ivory-colored cover, which features a special stag grain.

Also featured will be photographs by James K. Lightner, Photography Editor of the publication. These pictures will follow the seasonal theme.

Drives Net $2,000

To help finance the annual's expenses, advertising and patron drives were conducted by Business Manager Calvert Kenning and his staff. These drives netted over $2,000.

The 308 members of the graduating class will each receive a free copy of the yearbook, as will all other Loyola students.

The Rev. Joseph A. d'Invilliers, S. J., is moderator of the Evergreen Annual.

Cana Marriage Talks Planned

A Cana discussion on problems of married life will be sponsored by the Married Men's Club of Loyola College on Sunday, April 24. The Rev. John J. Scanlan, S. J., will deliver three talks concerning the spiritual significance and obligations of marriage.

The discussion will be part of a Day of Recollection for Loyola married men and their wives, which will open with Mass in the Student Chapel and a Communion breakfast in the Cafeteria.

Following the talks, the married couples will participate in a general discussion and then go to the Chapel to renew their marriage vows.

Although the discussion is intended primarily for members of the Married Men's Club and their wives, all married Loyola students are invited to come and bring their married friends.

Scholarship Exams To Be Held April 23

Competitive examinations for scholarships to Loyola College will be conducted on April 23. Seniors from high schools in the Baltimore area are eligible to take the examinations, which consist in psychological aptitude, English, and mathematics tests.

To win a scholarship, the applicant's examination average must meet Loyola standards, and he must be approved by the Committee on Admission after a personal interview.

Organization Will Prove Shakespeare Wrote Bacon

by Frank Gallagher

The Bard Is Back

In keeping with the spirit of Lent, we are planning to form an Anti-Bacon Club on the campus. Members will take a solemn vow to spend their lives proving that Shakespeare wrote Bacon. As a starter they will be asked to discover a cryptogram in the essay "On Love" showing that Bacon paid the Bard to serve as his ghost-writer.

The Club has petitioned Westminster Abbey for a charter. Meetings will be conducted once a year on the eve of St. Agnes, at which time prominent plagiarists will address the Club in the pretzel cabinet of the Peabody Book Shop.

Owed To The March Wind

March wind has made the library sound like the headquarters of the International Banshee Convention. Wailing is so mournful around the windows that William Cook is reported to have offered the school authorities one thousand dollars to record the lugubrious melodies so that he can play them at his seventy-five dollar special.

Several athletes, studying the "Romance of Anglo-Saxon Idioms", have complained that concentration is impossible in the library. The Chess Club, too, is unnerved. Taking matters into their own hands, they have passed a resolution banning the wind from all future public gatherings.

Commencement Capers

Niagara College students and alumni in New York are protesting the school's method of awarding diplomas. Diplomas are awarded, not alphabetically, but according to the scholastic average of the graduate. Naturally the low men on the mark poles are disturbed.

Unhappy students and graduates insist that a lifelong stigma is placed on them by this revealing procedure. In later life, people disregard hard work and point scornfully, saying, "I wonder how that boob ever got anywhere? He was last in a graduating class of 872!"

Dr. Kaltenbach Heads Alumni College Interests Committee

A College Interests Committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. P. Edward Kaltenbach, Assistant Professor of Classics at Loyola, has been formed by the Alumni Association.

Other members of the School faculty on the six-man committee are Francis J. Mueller, Instructor in Mathematics, Francis J. Sweeney, Registrar of the Evening School, and Rene J. Gunning, Instructor in French in the Evening School.

Provides Contact With Students

The purpose of the College Interests Committee is to provide a contact between the College's alumni and students. It also directs questions and information from the student body to the Executive Committee or to the Student Aid Committee of the Alumni Association.

Another function of the Committee is to co-ordinate the social activities of the School with those sponsored by the alumni in order to prevent confusion in the scheduling of social events.

Compiling Graduate Lists

At present the College Interests Committee is compiling lists of February and May graduates. Later it will send notices to these students, advising them of their alumni status.

The Committee has also answered student inquiries and passed student problems on to the Executive Committee.

Party Will Be Held For Team

Permission has been granted to hold a "welcome home" party for the basketball team in the Alumni Gymnasium when the team returns from the National Catholic Collegiate Basketball Tournament, in Denver.

Gordon Jacobowski, chairman of the party committee, announced that all students, their parents and their dates are invited.

Refreshments will be served in the Recreation Room, and an orchestra will be hired to play for the dance, which will be held in the Gym.

Costs of the party will be defrayed by the money made on the direct wire hook-up from Kansas City during the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament and from Denver during the National Catholic Tournament.

The members in charge of the committee have made extensive plans to ensure an orderly, well-planned evening. Special identification badges will be issued to all students so that outsiders may be prohibited from attending.

The Loyola team left for Denver on Saturday, March 19, and will return sometime during this weekend.

The Greyhounds participated in the N.A.I.B. tourney on March 8 and 9, returning home on March 11.

An Eventful Week

In two ceremonies, one in Washington and the other in Baltimore, a significant honor will be bestowed upon the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S.J., within the next week. The awarding of the Order of Isabel is the highest honor that the Spanish Government can bestow. It is the most appropriate manner by which Spain can show its appreciation to Father Talbot for his outspoken efforts in its behalf during the so-called Spanish Civil War.

Father Talbot was one of the few Americans who recognized the serpentine hand of Soviet Russia in that conflict. While the vast majority of Americans were duped into believing that the Loyalists represented all that was honorable and righteous, he was not deceived by clever propaganda daily flooding our newspapers and magazines. Although frequently the object of attack by self-styled political experts, Father Talbot never desisted in carrying the truth to the people of the United States.

Through his writings in America and through his efforts for Spanish Relief, many were led to the realization that Communism sought to bring under its sway the home of Loyola and Xavier. Every issue of America evoked protests and stirred controversy. While Americans by the hundreds volunteered to fight for the Loyalists and their "holy" cause, America published descriptions of the mass murders of nuns and priests at the hands of these very same Loyalists.

Loyola's students, faculty and friends can be proud that we have as our President a man who saw in the Spanish War the first traces of a colossal Communist scheme to bring the people of Europe and eventually the entire world to their knees before the god Communism.

Then And Now

As we celebrate Maryland Day, the residents of the Free State can point with pride to the three hundredth anniversary of the enactment of the famous Religious Toleration Bill of 1649.

The Maryland lawmakers passed that bill with no small regret. For fourteen years, it was unwritten law that religious toleration was a Maryland principle. However, the members of the Legislature felt that the presence of certain hostile groups was a threat to the common good of the Colony. They believed that these groups intended to seize control of the Colony and prohibit the exercise of religion. Therefore, the Religious Toleration Bill was passed.

Today, the people of Maryland are faced with a similar problem. There is in our midst a group of foreign-controlled traitors who threaten the common good. With innocent mien, they wait until the hour will be ripe to strike and destroy.

A measure, the Ober Bill, has been introduced into the Maryland Legislature to check their advance. The usual charges of "fascist", "anti-democratic," and "liberty-destroying" have been hurled in accordance with the Moscow Plan For Killing Legislation To Impede Communism.

Nineteen Stories

by Graham Greene

This collection of short stories was written by Graham Greene between 1929 and 1948. In them, he probes the recesses of the mind to present a variety of personalities, describing them graphically and cinematically.

The first story The Basement Room portrays a small boy and his first association with adult affairs. The End of the Party describes an episode wherein a child who is afraid of the dark, is misunderstood by the adult world, all of which leads to dire consequences. Jubilee ironically describes an impoverished Mayfairite and his chance meeting with a woman from whom he accepts money as a token of their friendship. Ironical humor prevails in When Greek Meets Greek as two confidence men, in their efforts to outsmart each other, underestimate the abilities of the younger generation.

The reader should enjoy this collection by Greene very much. A master of suspense, he never fails to hold one's attention.

New Evergreen Release Includes Easter Bunny

by Larry Davis

The second release of the Evergreen Recording Company, Inc., is now available (even the Campus Shop has them). The Company has come a long way since the first recording, which consisted of a musical trio and vocalist. Loyola's Don Swartz has been signed as musical director and chief arranger. The instrumentation, too, has been expanded to include trombones, saxophones, and trumpet. Don tells me that future plans include a flute, oboe, and theramin. Loyola is also represented in the 'bone section by Jerry Semerad and Tom Wohlgenuth.

The record itself shows great improvement over the first. One side consists of a catchy novelty song entitled Easter Bunny, by Milt Roberts. Lyrics are very capably handled by Miss Margie Shearer, who is seen on WBAL-TV. The ensemble gives a unison jive vocal à la Johnny Long. Solos by Don Frankhanel, tenor sax, and Neil Strawbridge, trombone, enhance the background work of the Bob Lloyd orchestra.

The reverse side has an improved Dick Coleman philosophically Waiting For The Day, also backed by the Lloyd orchestra. Don Frankhanel again adds to the smoothness of the record, this time on baritone sax, with a style reminiscent of the great Ben Webster.

If the boys continue to improve as they have, Evergreen Records are sure to become popular items on the best-seller lists.

A short course in the practice of bop was given recently by Terry Gibbs, vibes player for Woody Herman at the Hipp.

Schloss To Guide Loyola Golfers In New Season

by Mickey Parr, Sports Editor

Loyola's golfers and their followers should be mighty happy about the acquisition of Irving Schloss as the Greyhounds' new links coach. Father William Herlihy has decided to step down from the post, which he has held for many seasons, and Mt. Pleasant's well-liked professional will take over.

According to Jack Cronin, the Green and Grey's number one divot-digger, one could look around the Baltimore area for quite a while before finding a more capable man to guide the Loyola swingers in their defense of the Mason-Dixon and Maryland Intercollegiate titles.

Mr. Schloss has been handling affairs at the Mt. Pleasant fairways layout for seven years, and in that time the Hillen Road course has become one of the finest public links in the country.

The first practice of the season will be held this afternoon at Mt. Pleasant. Candidates for the Loyola team will receive specialized instruction every Friday afternoon.

"Keep your left arm straight, . . . don't move your head, . . . play the ball off your left heel, . . ." Better get the clubs out of the closet, men.

One High-Jumping Bar Needed

Consider the case of Bill McElroy, Greyhound track coach, who has acquired an outstanding high-jumper but can't get any of the sporting goods manufacturers to fill his order for a set of jumping standards. It reminds one of the diver performing a beautiful jackknife in his first workout of the season, only to find his entry spoiled by an empty pool.

The lad in the middle of this dilemma is Alan Meehan, Maryland Scholastic champ from Loyola High School. According to a report, he didn't even bother to take off his warmup pants when he annexed the crown last spring. Moreover, McElroy credits him with a 6' 3" leap at the recent 175th Regiment-A.A.U. games. That's pretty fair jumping for a kid just out of high school.

The writer has made note of the plucky efforts of Loyola's swimming team once before, but the tankmen's recent victory in the Mason-Dixon championships again puts them in the spotlight.

Before the meet a rather pessimistic outlook possessed some of the fellows, but when the chips were down they put forth such an extended effort that they outdid their closest rival by 23 points!

Eddie Miller's performance in the 200-yard breaststroke was a typical example of the spirit that the boys displayed. Clint Bamberger, who has lost only to Joe Verdeur this winter, was pushing off the bulkhead in his final turn of the event, when he espied Miller just a notch ahead of him. Bamberger then had to put on a terrific sprint to edge Miller to the wire.

Basketball Players Cited

At this writing Jim Lacy has amassed 2,145 points (and that's not news to you sport fans) during his Loyola basketball career, bringing the dark-haired athlete within 17 points of overtaking the sport's all-time leader, Brooms Abramovic, of Salem.

But rather than praise him for his shooting wizardry, this writer would like to consider another attribute as Jim's most noteworthy possession.

Through all the back-slapping, honors, etc., that have been conferred on the lad, he has emerged sincere, modest, unassuming, and confident. One of the truest things that can be said about Lacy is, that, whether or not he tops Abramovic, he has not 'gunned' for this title as his foremost objective.

Through all the time your correspondent has seen 'number 16' in action, there comes to mind only one clear-cut occasion when the Greyhound star has gone after points with wild abandon. That was in the final minutes of Loyola's last meeting with Johns Hopkins, when Lacy needed but one marker to reach 2,000.

Nor can anyone blame him if his feats have hindered the deserved praise of his teammates. If anything, the tremendous amount of honor that has been heaped on his head has served as a form of embarrassment to Lacy and placed him in a rather delicate position. Moreover, he has handled the situation very well.

It hasn't been the easiest thing in the world, either, for the other members of the team to stand by and watch the spotlight zip past them time and time again. The writer would like to extend long-delayed credit to Bob Anderson, John Bailey, Frank Barrett, Bob Barry, Sal Cammarata, Bill Ferguson, Vince Gallagher, Ed Hughes, Bill Johnson, Herb Meinert, Andy O'Donnell, Jack Simanski, Mike Zedalis, and Buf Zephir as gentlemen who know that patience is a virtue.

Swimmers Swamp Six Rivals In Finals of Mason-Dixon Tournament

Loyola's swimming team, coming through with a superb effort, retained its Mason-Dixon championship with room to spare in the Conference meet held on March 11 and 12.

Franny Mueller's title-holders outsplashed six rivals and amassed 53 points in the finals of the third annual tournament, which was held in the Evergreen pool this year.

An amazing total of eight meet marks were broken in the two-day classic. Loyolans Jake Fisher and Jack Blondell each accounted for two new standards, giving the official timers and meet record custodians a very busy evening.

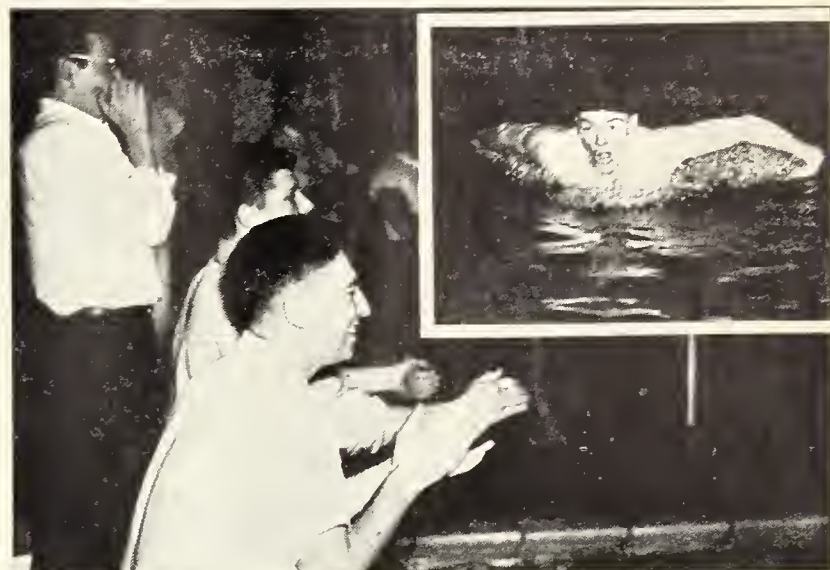

Score In Nine Events

The host mermen were blanked in only one of the 10 events on the final card. The Green and Grey made a grand slam in the 200-yard breaststroke final, finishing one-two-three as Clint Bamberger, Ed Miller, and Bill Klarner dominated the rest of the field.

During the two-day event Fisher clipped five-tenths of a second off the old 50-yard freestyle standard and a full two seconds off the century. His time for the 50 was 24.3 seconds, and for the 100 was 57.3 seconds.

Blondell scored his two marks in the 440-yard freestyle, and the 300-yard individual medley. His time in the latter was 9.5 seconds better than the previous record. His times were 5:35.2 and 4:09.

Greyhounds Take Tournament Opener At Denver, 75 to 58

Providing that the old spark had not died, Loyola's basketball team opened its bid for National Catholic Invitation Tournament honors by lambasting St. Ambrose College, of Davenport, Iowa, 75 to 58, last Tuesday night in the Denver, Col., auditorium.

It was a replay of the story that occurred several times this season as the Greyhounds, trailing 29 to 30 at halftime, came driving back to win going away.

Andy O'Donnell brought the crowd to its feet, just before the midway buzzer, with a tremendous set shot, thrown from the St. Ambrose foul line.

Sure-shooting Jim Lacy, hitting on sets and driving layups, led the point parade with 24, followed by Bob Anderson's 18, and Andy O'Donnell's 15. Joe Donnelly, a tall, rangy lad, who controlled most of the backboard play until he went out of the game on fouls, paced the losers with 16 tallies.

Loyola moved into an early lead which ranged from 7 to 1, on up to 19 to 12. However, the Ambrosians, paced by Donnelly, then hit for eight straight counters and snared a 20 to 19 advantage. The lead then changed hands twice more before the intermission.

The Greyhounds bounded from their rest period into a 34 to 29 edge on a foul shot by O'Donnell, and layups by Mike Zedalis and Lacy. From that point the Green and Grey was never again headed, the boys from Evergreen coasting on top by variances from 11 to 19 points.

In a preliminary at the Loyola gym, the Faculty basketball team upset the Keystoneers, 32 to 29. Bish Baker snared tally honors with a 19 point total.

The 'old men' had to overcome a 7 to 21 halftime deficit to win.

Loyola Wrestlers Place Second To Johns Hopkins

by Bob Bourbon

Loyola College's Wrestling team, with a total of 25 points, finished second in the Mason-Dixon Tournament, held on March 11 and 12 at Homewood. The Greyhounds trailed the defending champion, Johns Hopkins, who ran up a commanding 50-point aggregate.

The Green and Grey placed three men in the finals, one of whom copped an individual crown, while Hopkins sent seven out of its eight representatives into the conference "wrestle-offs". The Jays nailed down five first places in rolling to their fourth straight tourney title.

Meagher Stars

The Greyhounds' lone champion was Franny Meagher in the 165-pound class. He won his two preliminary bouts with comparative ease, and drew Bob DeYoung, of Catholic U., as his opponent in the finals.

In the meeting between these two, the grey-clad Loyola matman gave a truly championship effort, pinning his adversary in 1 minute and 33 seconds of the second period. Meagher had to extricate himself from several almost impossible situations, in regaining the '46 crown he relinquished upon entry into the service.

Take Two Seconds

Mus Bower, in the 155-pound bracket, and Bob Weiss, in the 121-pound division, advanced to the finals, only to be beaten out in a pair of closely contested matches. Bower lost to last year's champion,

Franny Meagher

Fred Smith of Hopkins, and Weiss bowed to the Jays' Charles Brunsmann.

The preliminaries saw the upset of three of the Green and Grey's defending titleholders: Steve Krizan, in the 145-pound class, Carter Beese in the 175-pound division, and Heavyweight Jeep Mueller.

The Finals:

121 Pounds—Brunsmann, Hopkins, defeated Weiss, Loyola, decision, 8-0.
128 Pounds—Cromwell, Hopkins, defeated Trout, U. of B., fall, 2-45.
136 Pounds—Tighe, Hopkins, defeated Burns, Gallaudet, decision, 5-1.
145 Pounds—Leipold, Hopkins, defeated Hladik, U. of B., referee's decision.
155 Pounds—Smith, Hopkins, defeated Bower, Loyola, decision, 7-5.
165 Pounds—Meagher, Loyola, defeated DeYoung, Catholic U., fall, 1-33.
175 Pounds—Hubert Catholic U., defeated Brown, Hopkins, decision, 4-3.
Unlimited Class—Kern, Western Maryland, defeated Walt Lapinski, Hopkins, decision, 16-4.

Indiana State Wins At K.C.

In its third attempt to annex National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball tournament honors at Kansas City, Mo., Loyola's court team was stymied in the second round, 78 to 58, by a well-organized Indiana State quintet.

The Greyhounds played on even terms with the Hoosiers through the first 10 minutes, and even held a 15 to 14 lead. However, the Indiana five eased into a 27 to 17 advantage and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

Bob Anderson's 18 points and Jim Lacy's 14 topped the Loyola attack, which never reached its full potentiality.

Beese Finishes Third Year In Loyola Sports

by Gerry McCormick

(This is a resumption of a series of articles about outstanding Loyola athletes.)

Carter Beese, for three years a star performer on the Greyhound wrestling team, ended his brilliant collegiate career recently, in the Mason-Dixon Tournament. It was in this same tournament last year that Carter reached the peak of his career by winning the 175-pound championship.

This year, however, misfortune beset Carter when a bad cut on his right hand forced him to the sidelines for two weeks before the tournament. This enforced layoff, and the consequent loss of practice, practically ruined his chances for retaining his title.

Always Helpful

Carter is very popular with his teammates who find him ever willing to sacrifice his time and efforts to help them. Since he is one of the smartest wrestlers in the State, his advice and instruction are in constant demand by the less experienced members of the squad.

Before entering Loyola, Carter starred for McDonogh both on the mat and on the lacrosse field. Incidentally, Beese is now playing midfield for the Greyhound lacrosse squad and should prove to be a valuable player.

While at McDonogh he was State champ in his weight class and was one of the outstanding athletes of the year.

Wrestling Career Ended

Now, at the age of 23, the personable, light-haired grappler has decided to bring his wrestling career to an end. Due to graduate next January, he will help Coach Phil Goodman until he leaves.

As his best performance, Carter likes to remember the match with Towson State Teachers last year. His opponent downed him in only 45 seconds, but Beese came back with a brilliant maneuver to throw his adversary in 39 seconds.

Spring Tests Open April 2

April 2 will be Spring Sports Day at Loyola. Lacrosse, baseball and tennis will all show here at Evergreen on that date.

The stickmen, taking the nod, will open the season at 11 a.m., when they play host to Washington College. This will be the team's first formal meeting against the Sho'men.

Lacrossers Wary

Bish Baker's veteran team will have to keep a sharp eye on Roy Wood of Washington College. He led his team in scoring honors last year and should be a top contender for a repeat performance this season.

At 2:30 p.m., Lefty Reitz's baseball machine will start rolling against a strong LaSalle College nine. Last year the Explorers tacked a 4 to 3 defeat on the Greyhound records.

Last, but far from least, Vince Colimore's netmen take to the courts at 3:00 p.m., against the aggressive LaSalle College netmen. The Greyhounds earned a 6 to 3 victory over the Explorers last season.

Rodney Places Second

In a 12-mile marathon run staged last Sunday, in Baltimore, under the auspices of the White Horse Athletic Club, Loyola's George Rodney nailed down second place behind Lincoln University's Tom Jones. The Greyhound star finished in slightly better than 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Baseball, Lacrosse Set With Seasoned Squad

With the warm weather returning, activity on the athletic field has also returned. Most of the athletes are working out for the baseball and lacrosse teams.

Lefty Reitz's diamond squad numbers about fifty at present and is expected to increase steadily, up to the first cuts. Back from last year's nine are such regulars as Tom Lind, Walt Simms, Jack Whalen, and Don Semesky, covering the infield.

Veterans Back

Lind, shortstop deluxe, hit .350 in '48, and accounted for 24 of the team's 138 runs batted in. Simms, covering the hot corner, had second highest average with .321. Leading the club in homers was Whalen, the regular second baseman, with three round trippers. Semesky took care of first in an almost flawless manner.

Last year's regular pasture men were Frank Linardi, Ben Spurrier and Bill Tucker. The latter led the club with seven stolen bases, and had an excellent fielding average, but he will be inactive this year due to a broken neck.

Carroll Returns

Behind the plate, Mike Zedalis, slugging .304 and knocking in 19 runs in 1948, is expected to continue handling the pitchers.

The pitching staff will have back its reliables, Bill Carroll and Dick Farace. Carroll struck out 67 men, crediting himself with four wins against two losses for a .667 average. Farace, fanning 42 batters, won three of his five pitching duels. Charlie Sybert, number three man on the pitching staff, will probably see more action this year. His record in '48 was 1 and 1.

The Loyola nine won the Northern division of the Conference last year, only to drop a 6 to 4 game to Randolph-Macon for the Mason-Dixon Championship.

Lacrosse Prospects

Returning to the lacrosse squad, to fill the midfield positions, are Harvey Brooks, Bobby Miller, Jim Connolly, Bob DeLisle and Ed Hughes, all major-letter men. High scorer for Bish Baker's stickmen was Hughes, who put 9 counters in the opponents' net.

Leaders on the attack with 7 goals each were Tom Oaster and Frank Kimmel. Ed Miller, Jim Whelan, and Doc Connor are the other returning attackmen. First line of defense will likely be held down by Ray Wittelsberger, John Mohler, and Jack Blondell, supplemented by Don Gillotti. Number one goalie should be Skip Barry, with Joe Kelley standing by for action.

rare form in their home pool.

Relay Record Set

Especially noteworthy were the performances of Captain Clint Bamberger, whose 2:43.8 for the 200-yard breaststroke was a new record, and the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Andy McCormick, Bert Dunn, Johnnie Allen, and Fisher, who etched a record of 4:01.2, in their event.

American U. was the nearest competitor, with 30 points, and had a record smasher of their own in the person of backstroker John Briggs. He swam the 150 yards in 1:49.4, two seconds faster than the established mark of Lenny Greenbaum, former Greyhound, set in 1947.

Johns Hopkins' only winner was Bill Marriott, who broke his own 220-yard freestyle record when he was clocked in 2:29.8. Hopkins, Catholic U., Randolph-Macon, Baltimore U., and Roanoke finished in that order.

Summary Of Finals

300-Yard Medley Relay—Won by American U. (Briggs, Patton, Teeters); second, Loyola; third, Randolph-Macon; fourth, Catholic U. Time—3:24.
220-Yard Freestyle—Won by Marriott, John Hopkins; second, Peters, American U.; third, Blondell, Loyola; fourth, Schindler, Roanoke. Time—2:29.8. (New conference record.)

Three Coaches Prepare Teams for '49 Season

The loss of four key performers leaves Coach Bill McElroy's track team in quite a rut in preparing for the 1949 cinder season. Among those who are no longer at school are George Brown, Dick Hicks (M-D high jump champ), Charley Kimmell and John Paszek.

New faces will be found among the starters this year, including Freshmen George Rodney, who was the star of the cross-country squad, and Alan Meehan, who was Maryland Scholastic high-jump and high-hurdle champ last year.

This season will find the Green and Grey team with its first pole vaulter, Earl Schmidt, who has cleared the bar at eight feet.

Other returnees include Jeep Mueller, who will handle the shot-put chores, Tom Maskell for the low hurdles, Walter Smythe, M-D high hurdle champ, and Jim Kaufmann, who has switched from the mile to the half-mile.

Golf Outlook Bright

Irving Schloss's golf squad looks as if it will present a problem to the other teams in the Mason-Dixon Conference because of its experience.

The return of Jack Cronin, who was the bulwark of last year's unit, gives the links outfit a firm foundation on which to build a strong squad.

The team will suffer from the loss of Len Saltysiak and Nemo Haslbeck, two of the mainstays of last year's champs.

Tennis Mainstays Back

With Jerry Laroque, Jim Lacy, and Gene Nolan returning to lead the attack, the varsity tennis team looks to be in fine shape for the coming season. Coach Vincent Colimore's squad will be out to regain the Mason-Dixon crown lost last season to Catholic U.

Lacy is sporting a record of unbeaten singles play through the past two seasons.

Freshman Johnny Darrell, winner of the 1948 Fall Tennis Tournament, seems assured of a berth in the net lineup. Other candidates for positions include Ed Ward, Andy O'Donnell, Tom and Bill McDermott, Bill Monaghan, Jack Shanberger, and Jack Gunning.

With three stalwarts returning from last year's squad, Vince Colimore, Greyhound mentor, looks to his opening tests with confidence. The Maryland match should be the only hump in the opening week. The Terrapins boast a steady performer in the number one position, agile, 200-pound John La Berge.

Baseball, Tennis, Track And Lacrosse To Begin

Four of Loyola's five Spring sports list action at Evergreen during the first week of April. On the first, the track team entertains Randolph-Macon. Georgetown's baseballers visit on the fifth. The lacrosse team faces off with Williams College of Massachusetts on the sixth; and the tennis team plays host thrice in as many days, to Maryland on the fifth, Towson on the sixth, and American U. on the seventh.

The thinclads seem to have the toughest assignment, having been beaten 85 to 23 by the Virginians in last year's trial. However, Coach Bill McElroy has not yet conceded victory to Randolph-Macon. He has had the Greyhounds after the rabbit for three weeks, and certain departments show decided promise.

Georgetown Is Dangerous

Speaking of the coming Georgetown baseball game, coach Lefty Reitz had this to say: "That crew always gives us trouble." Tom Flynn, ace right-hander, who led the Hoyas in an 8-0 victory over the Greyhounds last year, will take the hill against the Green and Grey in an attempt to repeat.

Williams College, runner-up for the New England lacrosse championship last year, brings an offensive-minded stick squad to face the Greyhounds. The New Englanders' attack is paced by Dick Merryman who was skillful on the all-star North squad last year. The Loyolans will depend on their defense to stop the visitors.

Very Good Defense

The Greyhounds are blessed this year with a group of crack defense-men. Ray Wittelsberger, John Mohler and Jack Blondell comprise the first team defense, backed up by Don Gillotti, Franny Meagher and George Thomas.

The team's offense, though light, is potent and should give the Williams ten trouble, together with Loyola's speedy midfielders and dependable goalies.

Tom Rommel Takes Intramural Bowling Crown; Norjen Second

by Ed Ward

Tom Rommel emerged the victor in the recent Intramural bowling tournament when he toppled a total of 2138 pins in 18 games for a 118.8 average. After taking the lead early in the second round from Lou Vaeth, Tom was never again headed.

History repeated itself in this second annual duckpin affair, when John Norjen once again became runner-up. John moved up to the second spot with the high set of 374 for the final round, and with a six-round total of 2117 pins.

Norjen, Richard Roche and John Darrell pushed Rommel the hardest in the finals, but Tom just failed to get the well known "lump".

Much cooperation and competitive spirit was shown throughout the tournament which started with over 100 participants.

The final round and the total scores of the finalists are as follows:

John Norjen	374—2117

Ragli Continues Announcing

Vince Ragli, Loyola's hard-working Sports Publicity Director, once again is keeping Greyhound fans close to their team's activity with play-by-play descriptions of the basketball games at the Denver tournament, just as he did during the Kansas City series.

Tennis Team To Meet Colgate

The Greyhound tennis team will usher in the 1949 spring sports season on March 31, when it entertains the Colgate U. team. Coach Vince Colimore's boys seem to have picked a toughie for their inaugural as the boys from Hamilton, N. Y., presents quite an imposing record.

The star of the Red Raiders is Frank Warren. Captaining the team for an unprecedented three years, Warren has been looking better than ever in indoor workouts and will be the main problem for the Green and Grey team.

Although they do not have many veterans returning to the team Coach Perry Rockafellow is well satisfied with the play of several sophomores who performed for last year's crack Frosh squad. Of the lot, Bill Lust, a Texan, Stewart Bicknell and Bob Barker have been especially impressive in early workouts.

Colgate has always been noted as a power in tennis circles, and this year's aggregation should do nothing to impair this reputation. Due to wintry conditions which last till late spring in Hamilton, the Red team starts its season with a southern tour which this year lists North Carolina State, American U., Georgetown, Maryland and Loyola.

Since Rockafellow took over coaching duties at Colgate, his teams have won 131 matches, while losing but 48, for a .732 average.

"CLOTHES of CHARACTER"

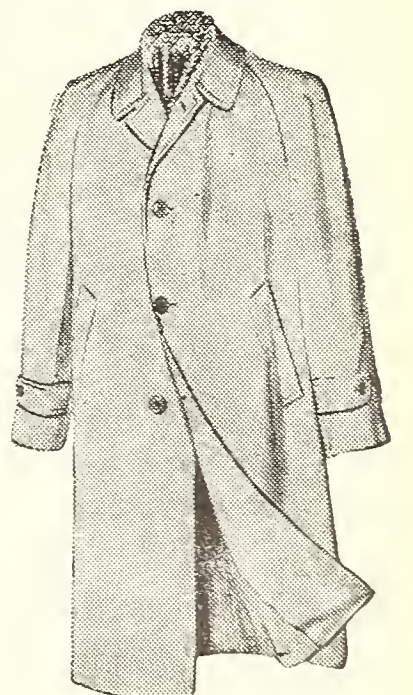

EDDIE JACOBS

3 AND 5 E. REDWOOD ST.
(between Charles & Light Sts.)

Their's Nothing Smarter Than Eddie Jacobs'

Gabardine Topcoats

You haven't seen what can be really done to a gabardine until you see Eddie's topcoat masterpieces. It isn't the club which makes an expert golfer — or the racquet which makes a tennis champ. It's what you do with them that counts. And what Eddie does to a gabardine fabric makes him the champion gabardine stylist. Handsome, graceful topcoats featuring custom-like tailoring. Full cut, with slash pockets and cravenetted for weather protection.

Henry R. Hergenroeder

The Critique

by George Herman

Hollywood has sent out S O S signals to the press and the public informing us that box office receipts for the past year have fallen below the 1948 levels. The reason? Foreign high quality films, a public bored with trite stories and clichés, and a new trend in drama that is leaving the old school of phoney intellectualism.

One New York tabloid has suggested that what the motion pictures should strive for is pure entertainment—the tired-business-man type of entertainment that skyrocketed Bobby Clark and his always-present glamazons to fame. In a certain sense this is true. The theatre needs more entertainment value, but the notion that “messages” or moral themes should bow to Jane Russell and a doubtful bedroom situation is a beautiful example of a clear warning by the public, misconstrued and grossly misinterpreted by Hollywood.

Hollywood, please note: America is no longer a nation of five-year-old intellects who must be fed on sex and syrup to be entertained. What they are trying to show by their lack of interest in current Hollywood production line shows is the opposite. They want art—good actors in good scripts.

This trend is being accompanied by similar revolutions in art, music and literature. Mountain ballads are coming back in style because of a remarkably fresh sincerity and a beautiful and original melody. “Death of A Salesman” knocked New York cold by slashing at materialism and pseudo-showmanship with a poetic prose that left the sexual studies of Tennessee Williams looking like a dirty calendar for automobile tires beside a Van Gogh.

In Henry Hergenroeder the Business Department possesses an instructor with a long and varied educational background.

He graduated from Loyola High School in 1937, with an outstanding record in both scholarship and sportsmanship. The following year he entered Mt. St. Mary's.

Class Officer

After one year of study at Mt. St. Mary's, Mr. Hergenroeder enrolled in the Foreign Service School of Georgetown University. At Georgetown he was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the U.S. Propeller Club, a national ocean transport organization; Secretary of the Alpha chapter of Delta Phi Epsilon, a professional foreign service fraternity; and Secretary of the graduating class. In 1941 he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Foreign Service, cum laude, with a foreign trade and foreign relations major.

During the summers of the years he was attending Georgetown Mr. Hergenroeder studied geology, consumer problems, and social psychology at Johns Hopkins.

In 1941 he entered Harvard Business School where he matriculated for his Masters in Business Administration with an Industrial Management major.

Ranked As Captain

After receiving his degree, Mr. Hergenroeder went directly from Harvard's R. O. T. C. to the Army as a second lieutenant. He was mustered out of the Army in December, 1947.

When Loyola began its spring term that year, he came to Evergreen and began teaching principles of marketing. Now teaching on a full time schedule, the twenty-nine year old instructor's subjects include principles of marketing, industrial and retail marketing, economics, and money and banking. In the evening school he teaches economics of marketing and marketing institute.

New Pastors Are Loyola Alumni

Three of the seven newly appointed pastors of the Archdiocese of Baltimore are graduates of Loyola College. On March 5, the Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, Archbishop of Baltimore, announced that the Right Rev. Monsignor William E. Mackessy had been appointed pastor of Blessed Sacrament, the Rev. Martin L. McNulty pastor of St. Cecilia's, and the Rev. Francis J. Egan pastor of St. William's.

Monsignor Mackessy, who was ordained by the late Cardinal Gibbons in 1918, has served as an assistant at St. Patrick's and St. Martin's parishes in Baltimore. In 1925, he was named Chancellor of the Archdiocese after having served as Vice-Chancellor and Secretary. Pius XI named him a Domestic Prelate and he was elevated to the rank of Right Reverend by Pius XII.

Father McNulty was ordained by the late Bishop Corrigan at the Baltimore Cathedral in 1914. After serving in parishes in the Baltimore and Washington area for thirty-five years, Father McNulty was named pastor of St. Cecilia's parish.

Father Egan was ordained by Cardinal Gibbons. He has been an assistant at St. Ann's Church in Washington and St. Vincent's in Baltimore. Before his latest appointment, he was pastor of St. Patrick's Church and pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Glyndon, Maryland.

Tau Kappa Alpha Will Receive Five

Tau Kappa Alpha, National Honorary Forensic Fraternity, will hold a dinner for the Loyola College Chapter on April 21, at 6:30 p.m. at the Stafford Hotel. At that dinner, five newly elected members will be received into the local group.

Mr. James A. Perrott, Moderator, will initiate Eugene Welsh, Lawrence Mooney, Joseph Reiter, Edward North and Edward Clarke. The other members who will attend are Edward Shea, Donald Fay, John Evelius, Winston Kourey and Frank Gallagher.

STUDENTS, ALUMNI and friends gather around the loudspeaker at the Evergreen Club during the first game of the Kansas City Basketball Tournament on March 8.

Games Heard At Evergreen

Nearly 125 students heard the play by play broadcast of the first game of the N.A.I.B. Tournament against Cedarville, at the Evergreen Club, 3203 Garrison Blvd. on Tuesday, March 8. The game was sent by Western Union to Baltimore and thence to the Club by telephone.

The Evergreen Club, through its president, Al Glover, volunteered the use of the club for the first game when it was found impossible to use the Gym due to the 11:30 p.m. starting time of the game.

The second game, also relayed by Western Union and telephone was heard by nearly 200 students and alumni, in the Recreation room of the Gym. Vince Bagli again did a superb job of announcing in the relay from the Western Union Offices downtown.

The hook-ups were arranged by Bill McElroy and Gordon Jacobowski, who contacted Western Union for the service.
